Economic Development and Redevelopment Program Tools presented by Randell Wallace and Kathryn Peters of Kutak Rock LLP law firm.

Mr. Williams gave a brief introduction and bio of Randell Wallace and Kathryn Peters.

Ms. Peters gave a power-point presentation overview of Missouri economic development incentives and lease financings for governmental purposes.

Ms. Peters and Mr. Wallace stated Missouri cities may establish special taxing districts and explained the uses of each district. They also explained property tax abatement and tax increment financing as incentives for new development.

In summary, economic development incentives can be useful tools. Each incentive has risks and rewards. There may be objections to these incentives. They encourage the development of policies and procedures for use of these incentives.
